GRADUATE STUDIES: TEACH & LEARN IN SPAIN PROGRAM

Established in 2008, this program offers native or fluent English-speaking students the opportunity to earn a master's degree in the field of education while gaining experience by being placed in a school as a language assistant. Our students become key components of their placement schools – located throughout the region of Madrid – and they will implement and practice in the classroom what they are learning in their studies. Now offering six M.A. programs, Teach & Learn in Spain includes a blend of online and on-site methods for graduate studies. These are yearlong academic programs (September-June). Each of the M.A. Degree programs offered by Teach & Learn in Spain is accredited by the Universidad de Alcalá (60 ECTS credits).
