DOCTORAL PROGRAMS

Instituto Franklin-Universidad de Alcalá has more than 30 years of experience working with international programs. We have the privilege and honor to be considered a UNESCO World Heritage Site, both the city and the university. With over a thousand years of history, we are the medieval city of Cervantes and Don Quijote, where you can see our storks, have some of the best tapas, and be surrounded by rich Castilian culture. Students are immersed and integrated into our community – they become a part of Alcalá. Students have access to all activities and general and all extra-curricular activities of the university.

Why study in Instituto Franklin-UAH?

- The Universidad de Alcalá is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Students are part of our university's rich history and academic achievement.
- UAH is a public university, ranked 6th Best Universities in Spain, and Top 70 universities in Europe.
- Programs are adapted to suit North American academic calendars and schedules.
- All courses are worth 3 credits/45 hours and accredited by the UAH.
- Students may gain professional development experience through internships, service-learning, and volunteering experiences.
- Only a short trip to the center of Madrid and Barajas International Airport (35min).

GRADUATE STUDIES: TEACH & LEARN IN SPAIN PROGRAM

Established in 2008, this program offers native or fluent English-speaking students the opportunity to earn a Master's Degree in the field of education while gaining experience by being placed in a school as a language assistant. Now offering eight M.A. programs, Teach & Learn in Spain includes a blend of online and on-site methods for graduate studies. These are yearlong academic programs (September-June), accredited by the Universidad de Alcalá (60 ECTS credits).
