

TAILOR-MADE

PROGRAMMES ABOUT THE CAMINO FOR FOREIGN UNIVERSITIES

The Camino de Santiago is studied by universities all over the world, as it provides a multidisciplinary approach to the past and present of Spanish and European culture.

Cursos Internacionales organises tailor-made programmes with different duration, structures and contents which include walking a stretch of the Camino, and combine on-campus classes with en-route lessons taught by specialist teachers of the University of Santiago both in English and in Spanish.

THE SCALLOP SHELL,
THE SYMBOL OF THE CAMINO

KOREAN STUDENTS ON THE CAMINO

